The MS Zaandam is a Holland America Line cruise ship offering various voyages to destinations like the South Pacific, Northeast, and Northwest. Launched in 2000, it features music-theme decor, multiple dining options, a spa, and entertainment, and offers a blend of classic style and comfortable amenities. The 1500-passenger ship Zaandam (named after Holland's Zaandam City) boasts an atrium filled with signature sculpture. Have dinner and enjoy a comfortable overnight stay in the cruise.

Day 4

By Road

Day 04: 13TH AUG, SCENIC CRUISING INSIDE THE PASSAGE

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner on board

Today, have a relaxed breakfast in the cruise as it sails through Alaska's Inside Passage.

Alaska's Inside Passage is a renowned cruising route through a protected network of waterways, featuring glacier-cut fjords, lush rainforests and diverse wildlife.

Stops along the route showcase Alaska's rich history, including Native Alaskan culture in Ketchikan and Skagway's Gold Rush era legacy. Enjoy beautiful views from the deck of the cruise along with enjoying an international buffet in the cruise.

Day 05: 14TH AUG, TRACY ARM INLET – JUNEAU – CRUISE

By Road

Day 5

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner on board

After breakfast in the cruise, proceed for Tracy Arm Inlet (access to shore, limited to shore excursion). Tracy Arm Inlet is a stunning fjord in Alaska, about 45-50 miles south-east of Juneau, known for its dramatic scenery, steep cliffs, and the twin Sawyer Glaciers at its end. Visitors can experience this area on cruises, which often navigate through icebergs to get close to the glaciers and observe wildlife like seals, whales, and bears, mountain goats roaming across various corners of this pristine area—not to mention chubby baby seals resting on the ice floes along with view of several waterfalls. The inlet is also part of the Tracy Arm-Fords Terror Wilderness, a protected area within the pure wilderness of Tongass National Forest. This awe-inspiring fjord extends over 30 miles, cutting through steep, towering cliffs and pristine glaciers fringed by the largest intact coastal temperate rainforests, making it a top choice for travellers seeking an authentic Alaskan adventure. The fjord is home to the twin Sawyer Glaciers, which are a major highlight, often calving large chunks of ice into the water.

We recommend to pack warm clothing along with waterproof gear, even when travelling by cruise. More than a meter and a half of rain falls here each year! We also recommend a water bottle, thermos or reusable coffee cup. On scenic cruising days, cruise ships ban paper and disposable plastic products that could litter this unsullied environment.

Next, proceed to Juneau, Alaska and visit the most remote, most beautiful and strangest state capital in the United States. Juneau is celebrated for its stunning natural wonders and rich history including the Mendenhall Glacier, whale watching etc. Surrounded by water, forest and mountain sights, visitors seeking things to do in Juneau can hike a glacier, eat fresh-caught fish on a seaside patio and tour a grand capitol building all in one day. Juneau is known for its outdoor recreation, fresh seafood and fine dining. You can hike up Mount Roberts to chance upon wild deer and bald eagles. Most sightseeing and whale-watching tours head north to Auke Bay—bring a good pair of binoculars to get the best view of these majestic and surprisingly graceful creatures. If you prefer land mammals, catch a floatplane to a nearby wildlife reserve such as Chichagof or Admiralty Island to spy some bears lolling around on Alaska cruise excursion.

The sleepy, misty city of around 32,000—mostly fishermen and small-business owners—has a frontier town vibe, but welcomes more than a million visitors each summer to its natural attractions, cementing Juneau as Alaska's number-one tourist destination. Experience this breathtaking city on an Alaska cruise.

Day 06: 15TH AUG, SKAGWAY – CRUISE

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner on board

Today, the cruise arrives at Skagway in the morning. At the height of the Klondike Gold Rush, the port town of Skagway served as the primary gateway to the legendary gold fields, and quickly grew into Alaska’s largest settlement. It was then a raucous frontier hub packed with trading posts, saloons and guesthouses. As the gold rush faded into the 1900s, so did Skagway—but today it has been reinvigorated as a gateway for a new kind of visitor: those looking to explore Alaska’s colourful history, pristine wildlife and unrivaled natural beauty. Set sail on an Alaska Cruise and take an adventure in Skagway. At every turn, you’ll find yourself immersed in gold rush lore, from the infamous Red Onion Saloon that still keeps a pistol that Wyatt Earp left behind. En-route to the Klondike, to the White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad is a classic narrow-gauge railway that traverses rugged mountains and passes, cascading waterfalls and towering glaciers as it connects Skagway to Whitehorse deep in the Yukon. Known as the "Garden City of Alaska," Skagway is filled with beauty and nature. Explore the town on a Skagway excursion. Much of the town has been preserved as part of the Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park, where rangers offer free walking tours around the historic district. Take an Alaska Cruise to Skagway and you’ll also find a vibrant local community, home to a rich collection of local galleries, curio shops and restaurants serving seafood plucked fresh from nearby waters. Later, board the cruise and enjoy meals before a comfortable overnight stay.

Day 6

Day 07: 16TH AUG, GLACIER BAY – CRUISE

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner on board

On your cruise to Glacier Bay, close your eyes and take in the sounds—the creaks and groans of “living” ice, the shrill cries of gulls and soaring eagles, the splash of a breaching humpback whale. Frosted peaks towering over mossy forests, wide tidewater glaciers and marine wildlife can be seen on Glacier Bay cruises, but every experience in this changing biosphere is unique. Glacier Bay National Park & Reserve is best explored on an Alaska Cruise or an Alaska Land+ Sea Journey cruise tour. Our ships are perfectly sized for the optimal experience. Prepare for inclement weather, even in summer and dress for rain. Pack a hat, gloves, wool or fleece layers, a warm coat and waterproof gear to comfortably admire the landscape from the open deck of your ship. There are glaciers, fjords, inlets, rivers, streams and wildlife galore on Glacier Bay cruises, so bring those binoculars. More About Glacier Bay Cruises with the serene majesty of snow-flecked and forested mountains defining its shores, Glacier Bay National Park offers some of the most dramatic scenery in the world. Keep your binoculars and camera on hand as you cruise Glacier Bay to the mile-wide Margerie Glacier, where you may have a chance to witness ice calving. Wildlife abounds in Glacier Bay, so stay ready—you never know when you will see the fluke of a humpback rise out of the water or spot a lone brown bear wandering a wind-swept beach. Glacier Bay with local experts come aboard for an experience that is

Day 08: 17TH AUG, KETCHIKAN – CRUISE

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner on board

Have breakfast on board and cruise to Ketchikan, Alaska. Alaska's "First City" of Ketchikan is so named because it's the first major landfall for most cruisers as they enter the picturesque fjords of the Inside Passage, where the town clings to the banks of the Tongass Narrows, flanked by green forests nurtured by abundant rain. Ketchikan has long been an important hub of the salmon-fishing and packing industries. Visitors can try their luck on sport fishing or simply savour the fresh seafood at one of the local restaurants on a cruise to Ketchikan excursion. Ketchikan is also one of the best spots along the Inside Passage to explore the rich cultural sights of Native Alaskan nations like the Tlingit, Haida and Tsimshian. You can see intricately carved totem poles at the Totem Heritage Center and Totem Bight State Park, while the attractions of Saxman Village just outside of Ketchikan offers the chance to see Tlingit culture in action, with working carvers and a dance show in the clan house. On an Alaska cruise to Ketchikan, don't forget to explore the sights in the town itself, including historic Creek Street, a boardwalk built over the Ketchikan Creek, where you can shop for souvenirs, smoked salmon and local art, while exploring gold rush-era tourist attractions like Dolly's House Museum.
